MDCCCXCV.

JOURNAL.

First Day.

LOGANSPORT, IND., March 27th, 1895.

The North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church opened its Fifty-second Session in the Broadway Methodist Church, in the city of Logansport, at 9 A. M., March 27th, 1895, Bishop Henry W. Warren presiding. The Bishop announced a Hymn specially written for the occasion, by Rev. T. C. Neal, after the singing of which the Bishop read for a Scripture Lesson, 2 Cor. 11th chap., beginning at the 21st verse, Hymn No. 822,

"Jesus the name high over all."

was announced, and the Bishop led in a fervent prayer.

After most appropriate remarks by the Bishop, he, with the assistance of the Presiding Elders, consecrated and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

The Conference then sang,

"Praise God, from whom all blessings flow."

Resolution.—The following resolution was introduced by A. E. Mahin:

WHEREAS, the growing list of Superannuates and the meager financial help received by them makes it imperatively necessary to guard more carefully the door of admission into our Conference; and

WHEREAS, there is a growing demand among the people for greater efficiency in pulpit and pastoral work; and

WHEREAS, we are thoroughly convinced that the responsibility for the admission on trial, and continuance in the same, and for admission into full connection ought to be more fully shared by the committee on General Qualifications; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1st. That the committee on General Qualifications, in addition to the information it may be able to gather from other sources, be required to call each presiding elder before it, in order to ask him such questions as it may deem necessary concerning every candidate for admission on trial, or continuance in the same, or for admission into full connection who may be under his jurisdiction.

2d. That the members of this committee shall be excused from all other committee duty.

3d. That this committee be instructed to sit with closed doors.

4th. That before voting upon the admission, or continuance on trial, or admission into full connection of any candidate, the Conference shall hear the report of this committee.

L. J. NAFTZGER,
R. F. BREWINGTON,
W. M. NELSON,
L. M. KRIDER.

Adopted.

Statistical Call.—The Statistical Secretary made his call, and the charges failing to hand in reports were accounted for.

C. G. Hudson stated that J. W. Welch would like to make some statements in regard to the financial condition of the Ashley church. Such permission was granted, and after a presentation of the needs of the case, dollar subscriptions were taken to put a bell upon the church, to be known as the North Indiana Conference Bell.

Wesley Hospital.—Joseph Odgers, of Chicago, was introduced, and spoke briefly in regard to the work being done by the Wesley Hospital, of Chicago.

At his request, on motion of F. T. Simpson, a committee of three was ordered to confer with Dr. Odgers and A. Greenman; R. D. Spellman and O. S. Harrison were appointed such committee.

J. C. Hartzell.—J. C. Hartzell then addressed the Conference in the interests of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

Preachers' Aid Society.—The constitutional time for the meeting of the Preachers' Aid Society having arrived, the Conference adjourned, and a meeting of that society was called, Bishop Warren in the chair.

C. U. Wade, Secretary, made report. (See report.)

E. F. Hasty, agent of the society, made verbal report. On motion W. H. Daniel, A. Greenman and C. E. White were appointed a committee to nominate the officers for the coming year.

J. W. Lowrey introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the constitution and organization of the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference contemplated the raising of a permanent loan fund, the interest of which should be applied to the relief of its patrons, annually, when by reason of age or failure of health they should become non-effective. And

WHEREAS, the said interest has for some years been diverted from its intended object, and blended with the Regular Fifth Collection Fund, thereby giving this fund to parties who have not contributed thereto, and are not entitled thereto. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That said Aid Societies' funds be restored to their original status, and applied as contemplated in the organization of said Society.

Resolved, 2d. That when said funds shall have been restored to their original intent, and given to the rightful claimants, that said funds shall not be deducted from the basis of their claims upon the Fifth Collection Fund, as said beneficiaries are entitled to their regular dividends by virtue of their regular annual contribution thereto.

J. W. LOWREY,
N. H. PHILLIPS,
A. E. MAHIN.

The above resolution was passed. On motion of E. F. Hasty, C. E. Disbro, A. W. Lamport, G. H. Hill, W. H. Daniel, B. A. Kemp, and M. S. Marble were made a committee to distribute said fund.

W. S. Birch.—The committee to draft resolutions in regard to the sickness of W. S. Birch made the following report:

Realizing as we do our inability to serve our Brother, Rev. W. S. Birch, in any especial manner, yet we cannot refrain, as a Conference, from expressing in this formal way our heartfelt sympathy for him in this his hour of severe personal affliction. We pray that this sickness may not be "unto death." We pray that in God's own way Brother Birch may receive the fulness of all blessings promised to the afflicted, and if the Lord so wills it, that he may be restored to health for many years, to bless his family, and to go in and out among us. We make record of our appreciation of the fact that God has enabled Brother Birch to give so many years of faithful and efficient service to the church of his choice.

C. KING,
C. E. DISBRO,
W. D. PARR,
Committee.

The time was extended.

Chaplain McCabe.—The Bishop introduced Chaplain McCabe, who addressed the Conference in the interests of the Missionary Society.

"O, for a thousand tongues to sing."

After which M. H. Mott led in prayer. The third chapter of Ephesians was read as a lesson, and A. Greenman, A. G. Neal, and others offered prayer, concluding the devotional meeting with prayer by the Bishop.

At 9:00 A. M. the Bishop took the chair, and the Conference business was taken up.

Journal.—The Journal of yesterday's session was read and approved.

Statistical Report.—The Statistical Secretary being ready with his report, it was heard and adopted and ordered printed in the minutes.

Conference sang:

"Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,"

on account of the very encouraging condition of the work in the Conference, as shown by the Statistical Reports.

Education.—The Committee on Education made the following report:

Your Committee on Education recommend the election of Hon. J. F. Elliott, of Kokomo, Ind., and Hon. Chas. L. Henry, of Anderson, as Trustees of De Pauw University.

F. G. BROWNE, Chairman,
J. K. WALTS, Secretary.

The report was adopted.

Stewards.—The Stewards reported the basis for the amount to be paid to Conference claimants, and after some changes, said report was adopted.

Sustentation.—The Committee on Sustentation made report as follows:

We, your Committee on Conference Sustentation, after careful deliberation beg leave to submit the following report: We are convinced that the necessity of the times demand the raising of funds to be used within our Conference limits, to supplement the amounts paid by some of the weak charges not able to furnish support, and are important points to Methodism. We therefore recommend that the sum of two thousand dollars be apportioned to the Presiding Elders' Districts, and to the different charges of the Conference on the same basis, and in the same way in which other benevolences are provided for.

F. M. Stone,
J. B. Alleman,
A. S. Preston,
J. W. Welch,
J. M. Haines.

The above report was adopted. The committee also presented the following recommendation:

We further recommend that a Standing Committee be nominated, entitled, Conference Sustentation Committee, consisting of one member from each District, who, together with the Presiding Elders, shall constitute a board of control to appropriate and disburse all funds placed at their disposal. Signed,

F. M. Stone,
J. B. Alleman,
J. W. Welch,
J. M. Haines,
A. S. Preston.

The above recommendation was also adopted.

H. N. Herrick moved that a committee of one from each District be appointed to apportion the benevolences apportioned to this Conference, to the several districts. J. W. Welch moved an amendment that the Presiding Elders be appointed such committee. Amendment carried.

Wesley Hospital.—The committee appointed to confer with Dr. Odgers in regard to Wesley Hospital made the following report:

We, your Committee, have heard with interest the Superintendent of Wesley Hospital, Rev. Joseph Odgers, and we rejoice that Methodism is taking hold of this important interest. We regard it as very important that Methodism should have a hospital in the Northwest that will be second to none.

Should any of our people feel able and willing to endow a bed in the name of the North Indiana Conference, by the payment of three hundred dollars for a year, we heartily approve the plan.

We also desire to again express our appreciation of the work done by Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, and assure to its representative, the Rev. H. C. Weakley, D.D., our hearty sympathy, and extend him a cordial welcome to our pulpits in the interests of this hospital.

O. S. Harrison,
A. Greenman,
R. D. Spellman.

Donations.—W. R. Wones announced that Sister Nancy Plummer, a member of Bethel Class, Market St. Charge, Logansport, had made a donation of four hundred dollars to the benevolences of the church, distributed as follows: $100 Women's Home Missions; $100 Women's Foreign Missions; $100 Freedmen's Aid; $100 Church Extension.

Martin, Grant Teeters, Chestene W. Smith, Melville C. Pittenger, Henry Lacy, David S. Jones, M. C. Kimble. Also, in the same city and on same date, and with the assistance of several Elders, the following were ordained Elders: Charles B. Wilcox, John Z. Barrett, Edwin T. Gregg, Martin J. Magor, Charles Tinkham, Jeremiah M. Stewart, Milton E. Nethercut, Ulysses A. Foster, Jay C. Dorwin, Ulysses S. A. Bridge, James A. Patterson, Frank S. Stamm, George A. Wilson, William A. McCarty, John T. Hatfield.

L. J. NAFTZGER, Secretary North Ind. Conf.

Change of Relation.—The following changes of relation were announced: H. H. Wright was changed from effective to superannuated; G. B. M. Rogers, from effective to supernumerary; W. B. Randolph and T. H. C. Beal, from superannuated to effective.

Triers of Appeal.—The Bishop announced for Triers of Appeal the following: G. N. Eldridge, B. A. Kemp, C. E. Disbro, G. H. Hill, E. F. Hasty, J. H. Bickford, M. Mahin.

Resolutions.—Resolutions in regard to the Bank, Postal Service, Bishop, Pastor and People of Logansport and C. G. Hudson, were introduced and unanimously passed. (See resolutions.)

Journal.—The Journal of Saturday's session, also of the Memorial session, was read and adopted.

On motion of L. J. Naftzger, it was ordered that the Memoirs, as read at the Memorial session on yesterday, be printed in the minutes.

Board of Church Location and Church Extension were appointed same as last year.

Fourth Question.—The Fourth Question was called: "Who are Admitted on Trial?" The following were introduced to the Conference, reported by the Committees on Examination and General Qualifications, represented by the Presiding Elders, and admitted on trial: David D. Smith, recommended by Fremont Quarterly Conference; Charles E. Hollopeter, recommended by Norris Chapel Quarterly Conference; Charles H. Metts, recommended by the High Street, Muncie, Quarterly Conference; Solomon F. Harter, recommended by the Kennard Quarterly Conference; Samuel C. Heston, recommended by the Mt. Etna Quarterly Conference; Ray J. Wade, recommended by the Simpson Church, Fort Wayne Quarterly Conference; James E. Ferris, recommended by the Pennville Quarterly Conference; Charles A. Rowand, recommended by the Centerville Quarterly Conference; William A. Griest, recommended by Pennville Quarterly Conference; Frank N. Sandifur, recommended by the Locust Street, Greencastle Quarterly Conference, Indiana Conference; Edward L. Jones, recommended by the Geneva Quarterly Conference.

On motion of L. A. Beeks, it was ordered that the Railroad Secretary be requested to obtain reduced rates for the Conference next year.

On motion, it was ordered that the Presiding Elders make the distribution of the amounts assessed to this Conference for Benevolences to the Districts on the basis of members in full connection.

On motion, it was ordered that after devotional services and reading the list of appointments, the Conference stand adjourned sine die.

Journal.—The Journal up to this point was read and approved.

Bishop Warren announced Hymn No. 816,

"O, Let us Still Proceed."

The Bishop led in prayer, made suitable remarks, and then read the appointments. The benediction was pronounced by the Bishop, and the North Indiana Conference stood adjourned without day.

Henry W Warren
President

L. J. Naftzger,
Secretary.

REPORTS.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Your Committee on the American Bible Society would respectfully report as follows:

That we heartily indorse the American Bible Society, and that we plan for a collection for it in connection with our other benevolences in all our charges; that we rejoice in the work that it has accomplished in the seventy-nine years of its organization, in publishing 60,000,000 copies of the Bible in 242 languages, in its being able to give nearly one-third of those 60,000,000 copies to families which were not able to buy, and in all of its sales selling at cost, and in the aid it has afforded to the missionary and home work of all denominations; that we approve its undenominational character, believing it to be one of the most efficient societies in promoting the unification of Protestantism.

We appreciate the faithful work of our District Superintendent, Rev. W. J. Vigus, D. D., and we will welcome him to our charges and pulpits whenever he can come among us.

W. R. Wones, President,
Chas. Tinkham, Secretary.
W. M. Nelson,
T. F. Frech.

BOOK CONCERN COMMITTEE.

We, your Committee on Book Concern, report as follows:

1. We congratulate our book agents, Cranston and Curts, in the improvement of the Western Christian Advocate, and the advancement of the business of the Book Concern last year, notwithstanding the financial stringency of the times.

2. We hail with pleasure the increase of the subscription list of the Western Christian Advocate, and the reduction of forty cents on the price of the paper the last year, and we pledge ourselves to increase the list, if possible, one hundred per cent., with a view of its reduction in price to one dollar and fifty cents.

3. We recommend that a sermon be preached to each congregation, on our publishing interests, as early as practicable, calling special attention to our literature, and that the canvass for the Advocate be vigorously pushed at once.

4. A list of delinquent debtors to the Book Concern from this Conference is in our hands, and in view of the already liberal concessions of the Concern to the pastors and the great need of its funds for use in the business, we recommend and respectfully urge upon our brethren promptness in payment of all claims of the Book Concern.

Signed: H. Bridge, C. H. Murray,
C. E. White, E. L. Semans,
Committee.

EDUCATION.

To the Members of the North Indiana Conference:

Your Committee on Education presents the following report:

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY.

From the Year Book, Visitors' Report, and other reliable information in our hands, we learn, with great pleasure, of the continued efforts of those who are the most intimately associated with the work of this great institution, representing Methodism in its relation to the higher and the new education, to make this University representative of that which is the highest, the broadest, the farthest reaching, and the best in nineteenth century university work.

We also rejoice in the attitude of this great and growing institution toward religious sentiment and Christian work among its students, thereby keeping itself in harmony with the fundamental reasons for which it was founded, and for which it is being perfected. However, our rejoicings are mingled with regrets.

1st. That many of our men have not as yet come to a full realization of the need of this institution of their hearty support, both by efforts to send students and make liberal gifts of money for endowment and other purposes.

2d. That the income of the University is much less than the actual demands necessary to meet obligations.

We therefore recommend,

1st. That two thousand dollars be apportioned among the Districts of this Conference for the current expenses of the University, and that all our people be urged to contribute liberally to the endowment Fund.

2d. That if it be the sense of this Conference — that, if it be necessary to the final financial success and prosperity of this institution — those having in charge the management of its financial affairs should plan for at least temporary retrenchment, and thereby preserve sacred and intact the Endowment Fund of this institution.

3d. That the visitors do not limit their visits to the week of commencement, but that they also visit at such time as will enable them to see the everyday practical work of the institution.

Since the Indiana Conference now has eleven trustees and each of the others but five, we recommend that a commission composed of J. A. Beatty, John H. Bickford, A. S. Preston, W. D. Parr, and W. H. Daniel be appointed to meet a similar commission from each of the other Conferences in the State, if they see fit to appoint such commission, and with authority to act, in case the other Conferences give such authority, to adjust the number of trustees among the Conferences, according to the Charter of the University.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

As a Conference in the Methodist Episcopal Church, we desire to express our just pride in the inception, and faith in the future, of the American University.

The comprehensiveness of the undertaking is well calculated to place the church in a most commanding attitude to the thinking people of the nation. We recommend that our pastors exercise care to thoroughly inform our people upon this great undertaking, which has for its definite end the more speedy coming of the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

We commend this institution as very justly worthy of their faith, their prayers, their gold.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

1. We look with pleasure and a holy pride upon the report of the Board of Education for the year just past, and feel that the great educational interests of the church are safe in its hands.

2. We believe that the cause of education is of such importance as to warrant a more earnest effort on the part of the church to support it, and that our contributions to its cause should be multiplied many fold.

3. We heartily commend the Board for its effort to provide a loan fund which may be employed as support for worthy young ladies and gentlemen who are desirous of obtaining an education, but who are not able to realize their desires without assistance.

4. We recommend that each appointment and charge within the bounds of this Conference be requested to observe the second Sabbath in June as Children's Day, and that as far as practicable our official programs be employed in the service; that a collection be taken for the Children's Fund, and that no other collection be taken, and that no such collection be divided so as to be employed for any other cause.

OUR THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

The visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute report it to be in a flourishing condition; the attendance large and increasing; the work done by students and professors thorough; and the endowment sufficient for all present needs.

Boston Theological School, on account of its location in a city noted for intellectual pre-eminence, and by reason of its able faculty, commends itself to all who desire to be workmen that need not be ashamed.

De Pauw School of Theology has an able body of instructors. The work done is most thorough. We are pleased to note that the standard of requirements for admission is being raised. Florence Hall, situated in a beautiful park, affords an ideal place for study. Board and rent are so low that a rare opportunity is afforded for economical student life. We recommend that all who desire to enter the Conference first attend one of our schools.

We recommend the following visitors: To Garrett Biblical Institute, W. R. Suman and J. H. Jackson; to Boston Theological School, J. H. Bickford and F. G. Browne; to De Pauw School of Theology, Asher S. Preston and J. A. Beatty.

Respectfully submitted,

J. K. Walts,
Secretary,

F. G. Browne,
Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The great success of the Epworth League, in both its senior and junior departments, has far exceeded our most sanguine expectations. It has broadened, deepened and quickened the whole life of our church, and has given us a hold on the young people which otherwise we could not have attained.

We commend the efforts of our pastors thus far in behalf of this organization, and urge to yet greater exertions on their part to make it most efficient, and to expect yet greater results.

Our ideal will not be reached until not only in every charge but at every appointment there may be formed this strong arm of the church.

C. M. Hollopeter, Secretary.
E. T. Gregg.

Officers of the Conference Epworth League: J. K. Walts, President; L. A. Beeks, Vice-President; C. M. Hollopeter, Secretary; M. A. Harlan, Treasurer.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

We rejoice in the increasing prosperity of our work in the South — in the wonderful success of our forty-five schools in reducing the per cent. of illiteracy from 36 to 27.8 per cent. There are now more than 11,000 students in our schools.

We heartily congratulate the Board in funding the indebtedness of the society, and in issuing bonds bearing five per cent. interest, and thereby securing a safe investment for our people.

We also rejoice in the wise distribution of monies since June 30, 1894, amounting to $215,354.68, and for the acquisition of valuable lands and buildings to the amount of $1,800,800.

We heartily appreciate the map prepared by Dr. Hartzell, showing so beautifully the lay of our work in sixteen States of the Southland.

We would also urge the interesting of our people in the literature of the society by the introduction of "The Christian Educator," and the use of the responsive services in connection with the collection for this cause.

We entreat our pastors to bring up their full apportionments. And we also recommend that the apportionment for the coming year be $3,500.

We further recommend that the collection for the cause be taken on its merits the first Sunday in July.

Geo. W. Greene, Sec'y.

POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

It is with deep regret that we observe among our young people, and on the part of many members of the church in official position, a tendency to engage in enterprises for amusement of questionable character, and in violation of the Discipline, such as dancing parties or public balls, pedro and progressive euchre games, attending horse races and theaters, all of which have an evil tendency and serve to negate the efforts of the pastor; therefore be it

Resolved, That we will seek by all proper methods of dissuasion to prevent our people from engaging in any amusement that would dishonor the church, that would weaken moral character, or destroy religious influence.

Resolved, That we are in sympathy with all organizations that seek to elevate mankind in the social state; yet we believe that the church stands preeminent in its organism and means of grace above the lodge or other organizations as a teacher of morals and social purity.

Resolved, That we will continue to denounce these wrongs, and cry against these evil practices, both from the pulpit and the press, and insist that a strict and faithful adherence to the requirements of the Discipline be enforced.

J. B. Alleman, President.
J. A. Lewellen, Secretary.
W. R. Wones.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Your Committee on Sabbath Desecration respectfully submit the following report:

WHEREAS, Sabbath desecration is one of the great and increasing evils of our times, and history and observation prove that just in proportion as the Sabbath is violated, crime of all kinds increase; and

WHEREAS, Sabbath desecration is a direct violation of divine command, and God's people have been invariably punished for it; therefore be it

Resolved, That we will do all we can to close all places of business unnecessarily operated on the Sabbath, discourage Sunday visiting, Sunday excursions, and other worldly amusements, and endeavor to lead our people into channels of religious thought concerning the Sabbath.

Resolved, That we will recommend the literature of the "American Sabbath Union."

Resolved, That we will read these resolutions to our people, and preach at least one sermon on this subject the coming year, and urge our people to a more careful observance of the Sabbath.

Alfred E. Sarah,
J. M. Haines,
C. B. Wilcox,
Committee.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your committee report and recommend as follows:

1. We call attention to the fact that a portion of the Catechism of our Church is printed in the lesson quarterly, and recommend that it be urged upon our Superintendents that they be committed to memory and recited in the schools.

2. Whereas, the Sunday School Union has aided during the past year more than 3,000 schools of our church, and it has no other resources than the contributions from charges, we recommend that the apportioned share of our Conference for The Sunday School Union, which is $765, be approved by this Conference, apportioned by the Presiding Elders among the charges and raised during the coming year.

3. Inasmuch as our Sunday School Union stands prominent among our great societies, we recommend that the Committee on Program next year provide for an anniversary meeting at the Conference, and that they provide suitable speakers for the same.

4. We recommend as officers of the Sunday School Society for next year: President, J. W. Lowry; Vice-President, J. D. Belt; Secretary, E. Westhafer; Treasurer, W. S. Stewart.

Respectfully,

C. H. Murray,
R. H. Smith,
S. Billheimer,
D. H. Guild,
J. A. Beatty,
Committee.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, Our church has, by word and deed, placed herself in the eyes of the world in favor of prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage, and believing that prohibition is the only right method to completely overthrow the liquor traffic; therefore be it

Resolved, That we will continue our efforts to keep the record of our church clean before the world on this subject, as distinctly in favor of prohibition now and ever.

Resolved, That we will on all proper occasions and at proper times speak and work for the complete victory of pure temperance principles in State and home.

Resolved, That we will emphasize more and more the lessons on temperance in our Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues; that we will use our influence to promote the efforts that are now being put forth to introduce into our public school text-books, setting forth the effects of alcoholic drinks on the human system.

Resolved, That we will organize Christian Temperance Leagues in all our charges when practicable.

Resolved, That we approve the act of the last Indiana Legislature in passing the bill styled the Nicholson bill, and will aid in its execution whenever and wherever we can; and that we believe the above mentioned bill to be a step in the right direction looking to complete prohibition; and that we particularly approve the section that provides for the privilege of voters of townships and wards to remonstrate against persons applying for license, and that we will give our influence and help when such remonstrances are circulated to bring about a thorough canvass of the wards or townships with said remonstrance.

O. S. Harrison,
J. W. Cain,
F. G. Browne,
Committee.

TRACTS.

We heartily indorse tract distribution, and recommend that every pastor avail himself of the free grants of tracts for distribution in his charge, and see to it that they are wisely distributed.

Your committee further recommend that there be no blank after the words "for tracts," in any pastor's Benevolent report.

W. H. M. S. AND W. F. M. S.

WHEREAS, In this year of drouth and famine—of wars and rumors of wars—the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society have wrought untold blessings both at home and abroad, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and contributing vast sums of money for the propagation of the gospel; and

WHEREAS, In many places, in both the orient and the occident, they are ministering to multitudes of their sisters, to whom they alone can minister; and

WHEREAS, Their devotion and consecration along all lines of missionary and philanthropic work have greatly quickened the entire church and enlarged and intensified the spirit of beneficence; therefore be it Resolved, 1. That we will heartily co-operate with the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

2. That we recommend a sermon to be preached at least once during the year, setting forth their work—our duties, opportunities and responsibilities.

3. That we will pray for the prosperity of the Elizabeth Gamble Deaconness' Home, and render whatever financial support we can consistent with our other pledges.

4. That we recommend the employment, in every charge, of a Parish Deaconness.

5. That we memoralize the General Conference to provide for the ordination of deaconness' in foreign lands, in order that the millions of secluded women may have an opportunity to obey the Savior's commands relative to the sacraments of baptism and of the Lord's Supper.

MEMOIRS.

REV. ENOCH HOLDSTOCK.

Enoch Holdstock was born in Appledove, County of Kent, England, May 26, 1817, and died April 13, 1894. He came to America when he was but eight years of age. Though an Englishman by birth, he was every inch an American by principle. His parents were confirmed in the Church of England, but were converted in early life and joined a Methodist society. He was thoroughly converted at the age of fifteen while attending a camp-meeting. He had a remarkable call to the ministry, which he was inclined to resist, much to his discomfort; but finally yielding, he was licensed to exhort, and in March, 1839, he was licensed to preach under the presiding eldership of George M. Beswick. He was twenty-six years of age when he began to preach, and preached continuously for fifty-three years. He was twice married. The wife he leaves was Mrs. Mary Derlin, of Goshen, Ind., to whom he was married May 8, 1856, at Goshen. Of his two children, one remains, the wife of Rev. J. E. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Ludlow, Ky. He preached his last sermon last Easter morning, his subject being "The Resurrection;" attended the last session of his Conference, and for several days before his death seemed even better than usual. The end, due to heart disease, came without any immediate premonition, and before medical aid, only a few doors distant, could be obtained.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, at the High Street M. E. Church, Muncie, Ind., conducted by Rev. G. H. Hill, assisted by Presiding Elder H. N. Herrick, Rev. A. Greenman, Rev. N. H. Phillips and Rev. E. F. Hasty. The floral offerings were profuse and very beautiful. He was laid to rest in Beach Grove cemetery, Muncie.

He was a true soldier of the Master, working mightily in many places as pastor and Presiding Elder. The following declaration of faith, after an experience of sixty years, written a short time before his death, was found among his papers.

"Christ to me is neither a myth nor a romance, but a personal reality, who was conceived of the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, lived a pure and holy life, died a vicarious and propitiatory death for me—for all men. This is my hope of immortality—that Christ died for sinners, and Christ formed in me is the personal assurance of my hope of heaven, so that He lives in me. This constitutes the most valuable part of my being. This life to me, without Christ, would be valueless. I would be of all men most miserable. He is my life, Alpha and Omega. I would not exchange Him for ten thousand worlds like this; for He hath abolished death and brought light and immortality to light.

These expressions are not the ebullitions of the present moment, arising from my surroundings, but the result of long study and a deep experience. They are the outgrowth of my inmost consciousness; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day. What is the result? When I shall walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil, for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." E. T. GREGG.

REV. BENJAMIN SMITH.

Benjamin Smith was born in West Rushville, Ohio, January 14, 1819. He passed away in the city of Muncie, Ind., September 7, 1894, aged seventy-five years. He was converted in Madison county, Ohio, in the year 1837, and united with the church in the year 1842. On the 13th of January he was united in marriage with Miss Margaret S. McDonald. Four children were born to them of this union. But two of these are still living, Mr. Arthur Smith, of Muncie, and Mrs. W. P. Foster, of Warsaw. After a happy companionship of thirty years, Sister Smith died May 19, 1872.

February 25, 1874, Brother Smith was married to Mrs. Ellen Aber, the now bereft widow. During all these years their union has been a blessed one, mutual affection and esteem and mutual consecration to the service of Him who had long been enthroned in the hearts of each, serving to fill their measure of happiness to the brim.

He was admitted into the North Indiana Conference in 1851, ordained a Deacon by Bishop E. R. Ames in 1853, and an Elder by Bishop Levi Scott in 1855. In the year 1878 poor health compelled, for the second time, a superannuation. Since then he has resided in the city of Muncie, preaching occasionally up to within three years, when he became so broken in health as to be unable to do any public work.

Brother Smith was an earnest, faithful and efficient minister of the Word. His early educational advantages were limited; but he sought, after entering the ministry, by hard and diligent study, to equip himself as thoroughly as possible for his high calling. He was deeply spiritual, and enjoyed a very rich experience. At times, when speaking on the great themes more deeply related to personal experience, he preached with great and convincing power. He was in his own person a striking illustration of the fulfillment of our Lord's promise: "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled."

He entered, years ago, into the rest of faith, and while he was studiously and conscientiously careful, as one ought always to be in speaking of his own religious attainments, he magnified the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ in an uttermost salvation, manifesting it continually in his daily walk and conversation.

His last days were full of peace. For months his strength had been gradually waning. His voice had failed him, so that for nearly a year he had not been able to speak above a whisper. Still he was rarely absent from his place in God's house, bearing his silent testimony. With the Psalmist he could say: "My flesh and my heart faileth, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever." He waited with much patience and trust for the Master's call. During the hour or more before he breathed his last he would frequently lift his hand and exclaim, "Higher! Higher! Higher!" This was the only word uttered. Had he already a vision of the splendors of the city of God, and of the glory of the saints in light? And was his yet fettered spirit eager to be lifted into the fellowship above? We may not know just what was his thought. This we do know: that this last word upon his lips was in harmony with his life-long aspirations. "Higher," ever "higher," has been the motto and the movement of his religious life. From grace to grace he pressed ever upward, still higher and higher, until the last step brought transition from grace to glory.

REV. D. F. STRIGHT.

Daniel Freeman Stright, son of John L. and Chloe Stright, was born March 6, 1811, at Gravel Run, Pennsylvania. He was married to Apphia Jones, April 17, 1834. She was the daughter of one of the heroes of Valley Forge. To them were born five children, two sons and three daughters. The oldest daughter, Louise, now deceased, became the wife of Rev. B. F. Armstrong, formerly a member of the North Indiana Conference.

Brother Stright was converted in a prayer meeting held at his father's house in Pennsylvania when he was eighteen years old. He was licensed to exhort by Rev. A. Keller, February 5, 1834, and was licensed to preach September 6, 1835, by Rev. James Winans, and was at once employed to travel on the Brookville circuit in Pennsylvania. He was recommended for admission into the Erie Conference, but owing to its crowded condition his Elder did not present his name. But at the earnest solicitation of Bishop Roberts he came to Indiana, landing at Lawrenceburg in October, 1837.

His first work was on the New Castle circuit, Centerville District. In the fall of 1838 he was admitted into the Indiana Conference. When the Conference was subsequently divided, his lot fell in the North Indiana Conference, of which he remained a member until his death, which occurred April 22, 1894, having passed his 84th birthday a few days before his death.

He was ordained a Deacon by Bishop Morris in 1839, and ordained an Elder by Bishop Roberts in 1841. For forty nine years he was on the effective list, during which time he traveled thirty-five circuits, served one station, and was Presiding Elder one term. For the last six years of his life he was on the superannuated roll of the Conference and resided at Knightstown. During the years of his superannuation he was true and loyal to the church and his pastor, and as opportunity offered was abundant in labors.

He took especial delight in visiting aged and infirm people in the bounds of his former fields of labor, to whom his presence and prayers were ever a benediction. Brother Stright was reared in a Presbyterian home and under the teachings of the doctrines peculiar to that church. But being convinced that the Scriptures clearly taught the doctrines of free grace and full salvation, he became an ardent advocate and supporter of them, and was a staunch defender of Methodist theology and Methodist polity.

He delighted in the study of Watson's Institutes, Whedon on the Will, and kindred authors. His preaching was largely doctrinal, yet he was practical, and his sermons such as to awaken conviction in the minds of the unsaved. Many revere his memory as a faithful servant of the Lord who was instrumental in their conversion and growth in the Christian life.

When the end came he was ready, and left a good testimony, triumphing through grace over the latest foe. He often said, "When I come to the river of death I do not expect to find any deep water, but a shallow ford." This was his experience, and he sweetly entered into rest, leaving his aged wife, a daughter and two sons, one, Rev. M. F. Stright, of this Conference, to mourn their loss. May God's grace be their comfort.

The funeral was held in the M. E. church at Knightstown, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Asher Preston, assisted by Rev. T. Stabler, J. W. Lowry, R. F. Brewington, and others.

"Servant of God well done!
Thy glorious warfare 's past.
The battle 's fought, the victry 's won,
And thou art crowned at last."

R. F. Brewington.

REV. WILLIAM S. BOSTON.

William S. Boston was born in Madison county, Indiana, near Pendleton, January 4, 1850, and died there, after a protracted illness, July 25, 1894.

He united with the church in 1865. In 1868 he entered the preparatory department of Asbury University, from which institution he received his degree in 1875. He was converted during his college life: and upon graduation took charge of the public schools of Pendleton, where for two years he wrought faithfully. In 1877, at Bluffton, Ind., he was admitted on trial into the North Indiana Conference, of which he was an honored member at the time of his death.

He married Miss May McCarter, January 25, 1881, who, with three children, survives him. He has served as pastor Anderson circuit, Spiceland, Lewisville and Ogden, Centerville, Pierceton, and Market Street, Logansport.

Brother Boston was a most lovable character, possessing naturally amiable traits, which were adorned and beautified by the grace of God He was most earnest, faithful and efficient in all his work for the Master. His energy was such that there was continued danger of his overtaxing his strength. No man perhaps could be more highly esteemed and respected than was our dear brother among those who have known him from his early childhood. Such was the feeling in the highest measure, both among his brethren in the ministry and the people whom he served as pastor. It was during his fifth year as pastor of Market Street Church, Logansport, that he was complled to give up the pastoral work, and in the Spring of 1893 he took the superannuated relation. He has gone from labor to reward, a faithful man of God. E. T. Gregg.

REV. J. A. R. GAHRING.

The Rev. J. A. R. Gahring was born in York, Pennsylvania, October 2, 1860, and died in LaGrange, Indiana, September 29, 1894. He would have been thirty-four years old the day of his funeral. When about fifteen years old he met with a railroad accident, by which he was so injured as to leave him with a permanent lameness. During this illness he was converted to God, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He graduated from DePauw University in 1887. In the year 1888 he was received into this Conference on trial. In 1890 he was received into full connection and ordained Deacon, and two years later Elder. His first appointment was Wheatland Street, Logansport. From there he was sent to Sharpsville, then to Markland Avenue, Kokomo, his last charge being LaGrange, where, in the midst of the active and efficient labors of his second year, he was called to heaven.

Our brother was married to Miss Mary L. Moore, June 13, 1888. To this union there were born three children, two of whom, with their mother, remain to suffer the sorrow of their great loss. One precious darling had gone on before to welcome the coming of the father.

Brother Gahring was always an acceptable minister. His close and anxious care for all the interests of the church, and his modest and friendly personal deportment, won for him the highest consideration on the part of all who knew him. There was a magnetism about him that drew people to him without any posing or seeking popular approbation by any artifice. He was conscientiously ambitious. He desired to be better that he might better others. He was not alone recognized as a preacher psssessing rare gifts by the churches he served, nor by his brethren in his Conference, but those in high official capacity in the church had discovered him as a man possessing unusual talents. During his sickness a letter came to him from one in high official place in the church, announcing that a church of much greater prominence than any he had served would desire him for pastor this Spring. When this was read to him he said: "Too late now; I may consider it if I get well." It was, however, a call to a higher distinction than any of the church below. It was to the glories and honor of the church above he was being called.

His funeral was held in the church in LaGrange under the direction of his Presiding Elder, Rev. C. G. Hudson, D. D. There were some twenty preachers of his Conference present besides the local clergy. His remains were taken to Kokomo, where they were laid to rest in Crown Point cemetery by the side o his child. Farewell, dear brother. We loved you while with us on earth. We love you none the less though you are in heaven. L. A. Beeks.

REV. WILLIAM S. BIRCH, D. D.

William S. Birch, D. D., was born in Dresden, Ohio, March 29, 1825, and came with his parents to Tippecanoe county, Indiana, when he was about four years of age. Here he grew to manhood. He had reached the exact measure of three score and ten years at the time of his departure from us.

He was born into the kingdom of heaven February 15, 1840, having, however, united with the Methodist Episcopal Church as a penitent seeker on the 7th of the same month.

He was licensed to preach August 23, 1849, by the Rev. John L. Smith, D. D., it being the first license he ever signed. At about the same time he was received into the North Indiana Conference on trial, the annual session of which, that year, was held in Logansport. Bishop Waugh, presiding. The Conference at that time embraced the north half of the State. In August, 1851, he was admitted into full membership in the Conference, and was ordained Deacon by Bishop Morris at the session held in South Bend. In September 1853, he was ordained Elder by Bishop Ames, in Richmond, Ind.

His appointments have been as follows: 1849, to North Manchester; 1850, Lagro; 1851, Bluffton; 1852, Ossian; 1853–54, Lima; 1855, Ligonier; 1856–57, Elkhart and Bristol; 1858–59, Mishawaka; 1860, Kokomo; 1861–64, Goshen District; 1865–67, Muncie station; 1868–69, Berry Street, Fort Wayne; 1870–73, Fort Wayne District; 1874–76, West Fort Wayne District; 1877–79, Warsaw station; 1880–82, Marion station; 1883, New Castle; 1884–87, Richmond District; 1888–90, Broadway, Loganspost; 1891–94, Kokomo District.

The early life of our dear brother was spent upon the farm in Tippecanoe county, Indiana, with his parents, up to the time of his marriage with a Miss King, who lived only a few months thereafter. Soon after this sad bereavement he entered Asbury (now Depauw) University, where he remained a year or two, and then entered, as already stated, the North Indiana Conference.

Dr. Birch was married to his second wife, Miss Cynthia Stevens, August 28, 1851. She was the mother of his five children, three of whom are still living. They are: Mrs. Emma Daniel, wife of the pastor of First M. E. Church, Richmond, Ind.; Mrs. Rosa M. Hitt, of Evanston, Ill., and Eddy A. Birch, of Battle Ground, Ind. This amiable and sweet-spirited Christian wife, after months of severe sickness, died in great peace on the 12th day of July, 1893.

On the first day of last August he was again married by Rev. W. D. Parr to Miss Angie Cherry, of Elkhart, Ind.

Much as might be said of his earnest and upright life as a citizen, Dr. Birch has been pre-eminently a success in his ministerial career. As a pastor he was always both admired and loved by his people. He was first appointed to the Presiding Eldership by Bishop Ames, in 1861, and during the nineteen years of his service in that capacity he presided over nearly all the territory in North Indiana Conference.

His record is one of which his children and misisterial brethren can never be ashamed. He served the church in some of its most responsible and important positions, as will appear from the fact that he was twice elected to represent his Conference in the General Conference, in 1872, and again in 1876. He was also a delegate to the second Ecumenical Conference, held in the city of Washington in the fall of 1891. He was also for years a valued member of the Board of Trustees of De Pauw University, also President of the Board of Trustees of Fort Wayne College, and for many years Vice President of the Conference Corporation, and Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society.

We glory not in men, but do rejoice and praise the Lord that He ever gave to His Church and the ministry of it a man so faithful and true. How could a man who loved God so much, and served him with such holy zeal, do otherwise than go to heaven when he dies?

Funeral services were conducted by Bishop Warren, at one o'clock P. M., Saturday, March 30, in Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church, Logansport, in which Brothers N. H. Phillips, E. F. Hasty, M. Mahin and M. H. Mendenhall participated. On Sunday following funeral services were also held in Kokomo by W. D. Parr, pastor of Mulberry Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of that city, and Dr. D. H. Moore, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Cincinnati, Ohio. His body sleeps in the beautiful Crown Point Cemetery, Kokomo, Ind.

E. F. HASTY.

NANCY JANE KEMP.

Nancy Jane Houser, daughter of James and Mary Houser, was born in Coshocton county, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1851, and died at her parsonage home in Mishawaka, Ind., Nov. 24, 1894, aged forty-three years, two months and fourteen days.

She came with her parents to Indiana, and settled in Winchester, May 16, 1873, which has since been the family home. She was united in marriage with our dear Brother, B. A. Kemp, March 26, 1877, and entered at once with him upon the responsible duties of a ministerial career, proving herself a most courageous and successful helpmeet. She stood in the front rank of the battle, by the side of her now bereaved husband, in the following charges in our Conference: Winchester, North Manchester, La Grange, First Church, Richmond; Anderson, Presiding Elder of Muncie District, and to the middle of the third year at Mishawaka.

Sister Kemp was converted at the early age of fifteen, and immediately united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Her conversion was so deep and thorough, and her Christian experience so ripe and comprehensive, as to eminently fit her for the position of trust and reponsibility which she was called upon to assume in becoming the wife of a Methodist minister.

She was exceptionally helpful in the class and prayer meetings, and in the revival services of the church. She was active in the W. F. M. S., having been chosen as a delegate to the meetings of the Northwestern Branch, at Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Detroit and Muncie. It may be truly said of Sister Kemp that she was noble hearted and true, that she was a promoter of good in every charitable enterprise, tender in her feelings toward humanity in general, and deeply sympathetic with the afflicted and the sorrowing. She was a director of the Board of the Orphans' Home at Mishawaka, and her character and service were expressed by them in the following resolution:

"Resolved, that we bow our heads in submission to this mysterious providence which has taken from us an able, genial, noble, Christian worker, whose counsel and help we shall miss, over whose absence we feel such deep sorrow, yet we lift our thanks to Him who sent us such a friend, for the blessed memory of her loving heart, her quick sympathy, her wise counsel, her intelligent interest, her helpful words and work in behalf of the little ones whom this Society is seeking to lead into a better and larger life."

It is a great pleasure to the writer of this memoir to be able, from personal acquaintance with Sister Kemp almost from the time of her coming to the State, to be able to say that no more fully consecrated or more consciencious Christian woman has fallen among us. Her constant desire was to "Know God and Jesus Christ, whom He has sent." Her end could not be otherwise than peaceful, for "He giveth His beloved sleep." To her bereaved husband and the children to whom she became a mother in every sense of the term, we extend sincerest sympathy.

A memorial service was held at Mishawaka, in charge of her Presiding Elder, Rev. C. G. Hudson, D. D., assisted by pastors of the district, after which her remains were taken to Winchester, where a funeral service was held, in charge of Rev. C. U. Wade, assisted by Presiding Elder and pastors of Muncie and Richmond Districts, after which she was laid to rest in Fountain Park Cemetery.

L. J. NAFTZGER.

MARTHA (THOMAS) EDDY.

Martha (Thomas) Eddy was born in the year 1800. Her father was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. She was married to Augustus Eddy, May 25, 1820.

How much of the wonderful success of her husband was due to her we cannot tell. We know that in all his labors and sacrifices, in all his poverty and trials, she was his constant companion. They belonged to that great company of whom Paul speaks, when he says, "Poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, yet possessing all things."

Her husband died February 9, 1870, after a very successful ministry of over forty-six years. We can look through the mists of half a century of toil, and allow our imagination to call up the scenes that must have transpired, the battles which we know were fought, and the victories which we know were won, until her life becomes fairly sublime. How many other lives have felt the transforming touch of this one! How many broken hearts she has comforted! How many despairing ones her gentle voice has called back to purity and home and heaven. Follow her as you will through all the multifarious duties of a minister's wife, and she will excite your admiration and cause you to be devoutly thankful that such lofty spirits, thoroughly prepared for their holy mission, and veritable messengers for God Himself, are to be found in the ranks of the Christian ministry.

Her last days, spent with her daughter, Mrs. Somers, in Washington, D. C., were days of unutterable physical suffering.

She leaned heavily upon the arm of her Saviour, learning, as never before, what her redemption cost, saying with feeble, trembling lips, over and over again, "If it be possible, let this cup pass from me, yet not my will, but Thine be done." In the last two weeks her suffering was somewhat abated, but her weakness and weariness were excessive.

The day of her death, June 24, 1894, her daughter said to her, "Mother, do you know me?" A pressure of the hand twice gave assent. She tried to speak. "Don't try to speak," said her daughter, "I understand you. Your suffering is almost over." At the mention of the name of the Lord Jesus she lifted both her hands and waved them in triumph, and a look of rapture came into her eyes that conquered the look of pain which was there before. So quiet was her departure that those about her knew it not. They looked, and she was gone. A soul and body parted then which had lived together in mystic union for ninety-four years.

Thus ended a life that was full of usefulness, and linked the past and present of Methodism as few lives have done. L. J. NAFTZGER.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Resolved, That as a Conference we return our sincere thanks:

First. To Bishop Warren, for the firm and yet kindly spirit in which he has presided over our Conference. We shall be glad to have him return to preside over our Conference at an early day.

Second. To the Central Traffic Association and the railroads therein represented, for favors shown in reduced rates.

Third. To the pastor of Broadway church and the other pastors of the city, for their efficient and very satisfactory services in providing for the Conference.

Fourth. To Miss Moore, the organist; to the Choir, the Temple Quartet, and others, for the delightful music rendered.

Fifth. To the sister churches and their pastors of the city, for the use of their churches and pulpits.

Sixth. To the city, and especially to the press, for all kindly services rendered.

Seventh. To all those who have entertained us in their homes, and have so generously welcomed us to their hospitalities.

WHEREAS, The appointment of Rev. C. G. Hudson, D. D., who has served our Conference as Secretary for the last sixteen years, to the office of Presiding Elder of Goshen District, made his retirement from the Secretaryship a necessity; therefore be it

Resolved, That we record our high appreciation of the readiness, diligence, correctness, neatness and kindly spirit with which he has served us, and that we tender to him our sincerest thanks for his long and faithful service as our secretary.

WHEREAS, The Government, at the solicitation of the Hon. V. C. Hanawalt, has provided such excellent postal facilities for the special and express benefit of the North Indiana Conference; therefore be it Resolved, That we render our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Hon. V. C. Hanawalt, the postmaster of Logansport, and to his genial assistant, Mr. Turley.

CONSTITUTION

THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY

OF THE

North Indiana Conference.

ARTICLE I.

The corporate name of this Society shall be "The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church," organized under the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, entitled, "An act concerning the organization of voluntary associations, and repealing former laws in relation thereto," approved February 12, 1855, and an act amendatory thereto, approved February 10, 1863.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Association is to raise and perpetually maintain a fund for the relief of the preachers of said Conference, and their families, said fund to consist :

First. Of such amount as shall be received by this Conference from the division of the capital stock of The Preachers' Aid Society of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, incorporated by an act approved February 12, 1841.

Secondly. Of amounts spcifically appropriated to this object in the centenary contributions of said church.

Thirdly. Of sums received by the annual and life subscriptions of the members of the Society; and Fourthly. Of funds accruing from bequests, donations, and such other sources as may be opened up. The fund shall be permanent, and the whole of the proceeds, after payment of incidental expenses, shall be annually applied as herein directed.

ARTICLE III.

All members of the Conference shall be members of this Society, and shall pay the sum of one dollar annually, or ten dollars at one time. Payments made to the funds of this Society prior to April 1, 1867, shall be credited, and notes given to this Society prior to January 1, 1866, shall be surrendered at the request of the drawer, if signified by April 15, 1868. Any person not a member of this Conference may become a member of this Society by the payment of five dollars, or a life member by the payment of fifty dollars at one time, or a life patron by the payment of one hundred dollars in like manner; and such persons shall be entitled to participate in all the proceedings of the Society while members. Notes bearing annual interest and payable within five years, may be received from life members or life patrons. Centenary contributions, when of sufficient amount, shall constitute life members or life patrons.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of this Society shall be a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and five Managers. These said officers and managers shall constitute a Board of Control, having full power to manage the affairs of the Society, subject to this constitution.

The Treasurer and three managers shall be laymen. These officers shall be elected at the annual meetings of the Society, and they shall hold their offices till the close of the term of the annual Conference next ensuing, or till successors are elected.

The Treasurer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond and security in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars, which may at any time be increased in the discretion of the Board, said bond to be approved by the Board, and filed with the Secretary.

The Board shall have power to make by-laws, not inconsistent with this constitution, for their own government and that of the Society, and five members shall constitute a quorum.

Vacancies occurring in any office in the interim of Conference, by death, resignation, or otherwise, may be filled by the Board.

ARTICLE V.

The annual meeting of the Board shall be in the city of Muncie, within thirty days next preceding the session of the annual Conference, and special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or any two members thereof, upon reasonable personal notice.

The annual meeting of the Society shall be held in regular Conference session, upon the second day of the session, at 10 o'clock A. M., the President of the Conference presiding, at which time the Society shall elect officers for the ensuing year, and the Board shall present a full and detailed report of the condition of the Society, its receipts and expenditures, with all other matters that may be necessary to a full understanding of its doings by the members.

Meetings of the Society may be called by the President or any two members of the Board, twenty days' notice having been given in the Church Journal having the largest circulation in the Conference.

ARTICLE VI.

The Board shall have power to appoint an agent and fix the amount of his salary, who shall labor for the increase of the fund in such a manner as they shall direct.

ARTICLE VII.

The Board shall, at their annual meeting, appoint an Investing Committee, of three laymen, who shall reside at the city of Muncie, of whom the Treasurer shall be one, who shall have discretionary power over the investments of the Society, subject to the following restrictions:

All investments shall be made either by direct loan or by the purchase of United States bonds.

All loans shall be secured by two responsible names for amounts of two hundred dollars or less, who shall be joint drawers, and said loans shall be renewed annually, and all loans of over two hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered, imperishable real estate, the cash value of which shall be at least double the amount borrowed, and the product of which exceeds the interest.

The committee shall make a full report of its doings, and of the condition of the entire fund to the Board, at their annual meeting, and the Treasurer shall, at the same time, present a report of the receipts and expenditures during the current year, and of the amount on hand; and the Board shall thereupon fix the amount to be applied to the objects of the Society for the Conference year then closing, and shall order accordingly, which amount the Treasurer shall be authorized to pay over to the Disbursing Committee. Contingent expenses shall be paid by the Treasurer, upon the order of the Board, and no sums shall be paid out by him except as herein directed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The proceeds of the fund shall be applied to the aid of the following classes of persons, and under the following limitations and restrictions: The superannuated ministers of the North Indiana Conference shall be divided into four classes, and their claims shall be upon the following basis:

The First Class shall comprise all who have traveled two effective years after admission to full membership in an Annual Conference.

The Second Class, all who have traveled in the effective ranks six years after full membership.

The Third Class, all who have been effective nine years after full membership.

The Fourth Classs, all who have been effective for twelve years after full membership.

In ascertaining the class to which a claimant belongs, all the effective service shall be counted, whether consecutive or not.

The First Class may be claimants for not exceeding five years.

The Second Class may be claimants for not exceeding ten years, no limit being assigned for the Third and Fourth Classes.

Nevertheless, should there be a special case, apparent to the Stewards of the Conference and Disbursing Committee, in the First or Second Class, who should be continued on the list of beneficiaries, they shall recommend to the Conference their continuance, and by a three-fourths majority of the Conference present, and voting on said recommendation, they may be continued claimants as long as recommended and approved as above by the Conference.

The First Class shall have as a basis of distribution, one-fourth; the Second Class, one-half; the Third Class, three-fourths; and the Fourth Class, the whole of the amount estimated as necessary for a support. A claim of say $400 shall, under this rule, be reduced for the First Class to $100; for the Second Class, to $200; for the Third Class, to $300, no reduction being made for the Fourth Class. The per centage of payment shall be upon the basis of the reduced claims. The claims of the widows and children of deceased members of the North Indiana Conference shall be the same as that of the husband and father would be if living; provided, they be persons of good moral character.

ARTICLE IX.

The Board shall, at its regular annual meeting, appoint a Disbursing Committee to serve to the close of the ensuing Conference. Said Committee shall consist of three members of the Conference, who may be the stewards.

This committee shall, in the interim and during the session of the Conference, obtain all practical information as to the condition and necessities of claimants on the fund, and shall, upon such information, recommend appropriations to the full aggregate amount allowed by the Board for distribution, which recommendation shall be submitted to the Conference for approval; provided, that all changes of amounts allowed by the Committee, and all claims originated by the Conference, shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present.

ARTICLE X.

Any note executed to the Society by a member of the Conference, and remaining unpaid, shall be deducted from an allowance made to him, his widow or children; but neither the Society nor the Conference shall have power to apply the amounts so appropriated to the payment of any other claim.

ARTICLE XI.

This constitution may be altered or amended at an annual meeting of the Society, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, such alteration or amendment having been first recommended by a majority of all the members of the Board.

ARTICLE XII.

The corporate seal of this Society shall be a metallic impression, with the following words and letters, to-wit: "The Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.
